

List of Licensed Professionals

Professionals who may administer the Department of Health Complex Trauma Exposure Assessment and Complex Trauma Eligibility Determination. As well as, completing and or collecting Functional Impairment Assessments as outlined in the National Child Traumatic Stress Network (NCTSN) guidelines for assessing Complex Trauma and NCTSN list of domain assessment tools.

<http://nctsnet.org/trauma-types/complex-trauma>

Licensed Masters Social Worker, LMSW

Licensed Clinical Social Worker, LCSW

Licensed Psychologist

Licensed Psychiatrist

Licensed Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner, LNPP,

Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, LMFT,

Licensed Mental Health Counselor, LMHC

Pediatrician/Family Medicine Physician or Internist with specialization in Behavioral Health

Clinicians identified include but are not limited to employees of Licensed/Certified Article 28, 31, 32, 16 clinics.

*The licensed professional that is conducting the Complex Trauma Assessment Process and Complex Trauma Eligibility Determination should not be within the same supervisory/program structure as the Health Home program and care manager assigned to the child. Care Management Agencies and Health Homes must ensure the Complex Trauma Assessment process is Conflict Free.